

Agenda for Creating A Flood Ready Community Training

Friday, May 20, 2016

University of Delaware Paradee Center

8:30 am

Check in & Coffee

9:00

Welcome and Introductions

Julia O'Hanlon, Institute for Public Administration

Module 1: Risk and Hazard Concepts

Susan Love, DNREC Division of Energy and Climate

Module 2: Recommended Strategies for Reducing Vulnerability and Exposure

Greg Williams and Mike Powell, DNREC Flood Mitigation Program

Module 3: Climate Trends and Future Projections for Flood Hazards in Delaware

Susan Love, DNREC Division of Energy and Climate

10:30 – 10:40

Break

10:40

Module 4: Community Engagement and Identifying Adaptation Strategies – Planning for Future Flood Risk in Your Community

Wendy Carey, Delaware Sea Grant

Resiliency Planning at the Community Level

Danielle Swallow, DNREC Delaware Coastal Program

Module 5: Resources to Help Your Community be Flood Ready

Susan Love, DNREC Division of Energy and Climate

Delaware Database for Funding Resilient Communities

Gemma Tierney, Institute for Public Administration

Wrap Up

Julia O'Hanlon, Institute for Public Administration

Noon – 1:00

Networking Lunch

Dig into questions sparked by the morning presentations in small group discussions with speakers.

Presentations and Course Materials will be made available online at:
<http://de.gov/floodreadycommunityresources>