

WETLANDS RESTORATION CONSTRUCTION TECHNIQUES WORKSHOP

AGENDA

Delaware National Estuarine Research Reserve

9:00 am Welcoming Remarks and Introductory Presentations:

The Potential Effects of Climate Change and Sea Level Rise
Upon Coastal Wetland Restoration

Speaker: Bart Wilson, Delaware Coastal Program/DNREC

Tools for Designing and Assessing Wetland Restoration

Speaker: Alison Rogerson, Watershed Assessment/DNREC

Wetland Restoration Construction Techniques Presentation

Speakers: Tom Barthelmeh, Drainage and Stormwater/DNREC and
Al Rizzo, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

11:30 am Lunch (bring your own)

12:00 pm Presentation Wrap Up

Wetland Construction Interactive Work

Group Project Presentations

Discussion and Questions

2:00 pm Dismiss

The Wetlands Restoration Construction Techniques Workshop is a Coastal Decision Maker Workshop sponsored by the Delaware National Estuarine Research Reserve and the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control, Division of Soil and Water Conservation in partnership with:

- Drainage and Stormwater Section, Division of Soil and Water Conservation, DNREC
 - Watershed Assessment Section, Division of Water Resources, DNREC
- Delaware Coastal Program Section, Division of Soil and Water Conservation, DNREC

