

Homeowner Adaptation Options

Protect

Within the next 20 years, would you consider using any of these adaptation options for your own property?

Please “vote” only once per box, with the corresponding sticky dot to indicate your response.

Green = Yes

Yellow = Unsure/Need more information

Red = No

Install flood gates or panels to protect doors and windows	Raise appliances above flood level or install water-proof barriers	Construct berm or floodwall around property
Practice good dune stewardship	Install home weatherization and energy efficiency updates	Other Ideas (Place post-it notes here)

Homeowner Adaptation Options

Accommodate

Within the next 20 years, would you consider using any of these adaptation options for your own property?

Please “vote” only once per box, with the corresponding sticky dot to indicate your response.

Green = Yes

Yellow = Unsure/Need more information

Red = No

Elevate home and/or structures	Elevate and secure utilities	Use real-time warning systems
Develop household emergency plans	Use available cooling centers during excessive heat waves	Install rain gardens to capture storm water

Other Ideas (Place post-it notes here)

Homeowner Adaptation Options

Avoid / Retreat

Within the next 20 years, would you consider using any of these adaptation options for your own property?

Please “vote” only once per box, with the corresponding sticky dot to indicate your response.

Green = Yes

Yellow = Unsure/Need more information

Red = No

Avoid constructing new additions/homes in high risk areas

Do not maintain or Retreat from property that repetitively floods

Other Ideas
(Place post-it notes here)