SITE INVESTIGATION AND RESTORATION SECTION (SIRS) is responsible for the identification, evaluation, and remediation of sites in Delaware that have had past releases of hazardous substances. The section manages the contaminated sites under three major programs in accordance with the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Act (HSCA). The three programs are the Brownfields Development

Program, the Voluntary Cleanup Program (VCP), and the HSCA Enforcement Program (for sites requiring enforcement action).

The Brownfields Development Program encourages the cleanup and redevelopment of either the entire property, the expansion of the property, or the reuse of the property which may be hindered by the reasonable held belief that the property may be contaminated. A party seeking to develop such a property negotiates with SIRS for a Brownfields Development Agreement (BDA) to perform an investigation and, if necessary, a remedy, for the purpose of addressing the risks posed by past releases of hazardous substances at these sites. However, a BDA is only available to parties that are not current owners or operators of the site. The Voluntary Cleanup Program (VCP) Agreement is available to site owners who want to clean up their sites and are already liable as a potentially responsible party for the site.

LEGAL NOTICES - Agricultural Utilization Permit Amendment – Denali Water Solutions, LLC

Denali Water Solutions, LLC. (Denali) of Keymar, Maryland is currently permitted under Agricultural Utilization Permit (AGU) Number AGU 1703-K-05 to operate a land treatment system for the agricultural utilization (AGU) of dissolved air floatation (DAF) residuals, in accordance with Part V of the Department's Guidance and Regulations Governing the Land Treatment of Wastes. Denali has requested amendment of their AGU permit for the land application of DAF residuals onto an additional farm known as the Collison Farm.

DAF managed by Denali consists of residuals generated from chicken and pet food processing facilities during the treatment of process wastewater. DAF can be beneficially reused as a fertilizer since it contains nutrients which are essential for agricultural crop production. After applying an appropriate amount of DAF to a farm field, crops are planted and grown utilizing these nutrients. DAF residuals applied by Denali are required to be analyzed for a list of parameters including nutrient content prior to land application. The DAF residuals applied by Denali do not contain sanitary (human) waste and are permitted for application no more than once every three years on any one permitted area. DAF is required to be transported to storage facilities and the land application sites in accordance with Delaware Non-Hazardous Liquid Waste Transporters Permit No. DE OH-601.

Under the current permit, DAF and other DNREC approved land treatable wastes may be applied at agronomic rates onto 8 previously permitted farms comprising approximately 1,200 acres of land that is suitable for land application. Upon permit amendment, the Collison Farm will be added to the permit. The Collison Farm application site consists of approximately 340 acres of land suitable for land application and is located west of DuPont Highway (Rt. 13), south of Paradise Alley Road (Road 426), and north of Hopkins Cemetery Road, approximately 4 miles north of Harrington, Delaware.

Agricultural Utilization Permit Amendment – Dogfish Head Craft Brewery

Dogfish Head Craft Brewery (Dogfish) of Milton Delaware is currently permitted under Agricultural Utilization (AGU) Permit Number AGU 1406-S-05 to operate a land treatment system for the agricultural utilization of brewery waste process water, in accordance with Part V of the Department's Guidance and Regulations Governing the Land Treatment of Wastes. Dogfish has requested amendment of their AGU Permit for the land application of brewery waste process water onto an additional farm known as the Young Farm.

Brewery wash down water managed by Dogfish consists of liquid byproducts generated as part of the brewing process and may consist of wastewater generated from the flushing of brewing vessels, backwash from filtration systems, wastewater generated during packaging and cleaning activities and from various other sources created during the brewing process. Brewery wash down water can be beneficially reused as a fertilizer since it contains nutrients which are essential for agricultural crop production. Brewery wash down water is applied to continual grass crops which utilize these nutrients. The wash down water is required to undergo periodic analysis for a list of specific parameters including nutrient content. Hydrologic load and nutrient content limit the application volume onto permitted farms. The wash down wastewater is required be delivered to the land application sites in accordance with Delaware Non-Hazardous Liquid Waste Transporters Permit No. DE OH-103 and does not contain sanitary (human) wastewater.

Under the current permit, limited quantities of brewery process water may be surface applied at agronomic rates onto approved portions of five farms know as Payton Farm, Baker Farm, Burton Farm, Sequoia Farm and the Spicer Farm, comprising a total of approximately 121 acres of farmland, located near the Town of Milton in Sussex County, Delaware. Upon permit amendment, the Young Farm will be added to the permit. The Young Farm application site consists of approximately 25 acres of land suitable for land application and is located west of Sand Hill Road, approximately 4 miles southwest of Milton, Delaware.

Part V of the Department's Guidance and Regulations Governing the Land Treatment of Wastes allows for the above activities pending public notice.

A copy of the permit applications referenced above are available by contacting:

Brian Churchill, Surface Water Discharges Section, 89 Kings Highway, Dover, DE 19901, (302) 739-9946. A public hearing on the above application(s) will NOT be held unless the Secretary of DNREC determines that a public hearing is in the public interest or if a written meritorious objection to the application is received by 4:30 p.m. on April 10.
